CRAFTS

ECO-PRINTING WORKSHOP

Instructor: Jamila Rufaro, jamilarufaro@gmail.com

Prerequisite: None

Make a bundle of prints using leaves and other all natural materials. Prints may be used in a variety of ways including as book pages, collage pieces, and greeting cards. Eco-prints are prints of leaves and plants made by steaming the plants between sheets of pre-treated paper. The treatment of the paper with a mordant draws out the natural dyes in the plants and leaves behind an imprint of the plant. Results can be stunning and surprising or unexpected. Students should bring paper and pencil to take notes. There is a $25 materials fee payable to the instructor.

One Session • July 12
Tuesday • 6–9 p.m.
Palo Alto HS Rm 1701 • $40

KNITTING

Instructor: Paola Trombetta

Prerequisite: None

Knitters of all abilities are welcome! Learn basic and advanced skills in this fun and collaborative knitting workshop. Beginners learn to read pattern books, and/or design and create their own knitted garment and gifts. Advanced knitters, master your techniques and bring projects you are currently working on.

CITIZENSHIP / AMERICAN ELECTION PROCESS

The need for citizenship classes was one of the fundamental reasons for the original establishment of adult schools. Palo Alto Adult School continues to offer this program as community members seek citizenship and voting rights.

CITIZENSHIP

Instructor: Sara Ziogas, szioegas@pausd.org

Prerequisite: Recommended for low intermediate to advanced English learners

Are you ready to apply for U.S. Citizenship but you're not sure where to start? Have you already submitted your Citizenship application and you need to prepare for your interview and civics test? Whether you are still considering applying or you already have, this is the class for you! Required textbook can be purchased in the Adult School office.

6 wks • June 6–July 13 (No class July 4)
Monday and Wednesday • 6:30–9 p.m.
Palo Alto HS Rm 218 • No Fee *

CONVERSATIONS ABOUT THE AMERICAN ELECTION PROCESS

Instructor: Katherine Barg, professorbarg@gmail.com

Prerequisite: None

Have you been trying to figure out the mysteries of the American Election this year? What is a caucus? What is a super delegate? What do they really do at conventions? How do Americans elect their President? Where did the American election traditions come from? If there are really 126 political parties why do we only hear about two? If you want to learn about this and more, and follow along as the process reaches the end on November 8, (or does it?) please join us for conversations around these topics and more! It will be interactive, informative and fun! You may be surprised what you find out!

4 wks • June 7–June 30
Tuesday and Thursday • 10 a.m.–12 noon
Greendell Rm P4 • $116

COMPUTER SKILLS

POWERPOINT: Beginning

Instructor: Ellen Engelman, eengelman@pausd.org

Prerequisite: Keyboard knowledge

Do you want to be known as a superior communicator? Do you want to make your next presentation effective and unforgettable? Use text, music, video, and your own photos to create presentations that entertain, inform, persuade, or sell. Whether you are new to PowerPoint — or simply want to brush up on your skills — then this is the class for you! No textbook required. Instructor provides handouts.

5 wks • June 6–July 11 (No class July 4)
Monday • 6:30–9 p.m.

ENGLISH ENRICHMENT

POETRY READING AND WRITING WORKSHOP

Instructor: Sharon Hampel, shampel@pausd.org

Prerequisite: Intermediate high and advanced ESL students

Textbook: A Child's Garden of Verses by Robert Louis Stevenson

We will read, talk about, and write poetry. The text has simple and beautiful English poems. I will also introduce other poets whose language and symbols are clear (such as Emily Dickinson). We will construct a poem, starting with journal entries. Correct English intonation is one of the benefits of reading poetry aloud (and we will do a lot of it). A chance to express ideas and feelings is the benefit of writing poetry (and we will write many short poems). No poem is a bad poem, so rubrics and grammar discussions will be at a minimum. I look forward to an inspiring class!
