DEAR COMMUNITY MEMBERS:

We're excited to kick off another new school year. This quarter brings an expanded Music program, opportunities to exercise and socialize while dancing, and Genealogy is back!

Our community partner this quarter is the South Bay Guitar Society. The Adult School and SBGS share a passion for music appreciation and education. Through our partnership, we are able to add Yuri Liberzon, an internationally acclaimed classical concert guitarist to our list of instructors.

In addition, I am thrilled to be your new Adult School Principal. I hope that you will explore our diverse list of classes and find the one that is right for you!

See you in class,

STUDENT SHOWCASE

1st time PAAS student—Sewing success!

“Part of my new year’s resolution this year was to think less and do more. A friend of a friend told me about the Adult School classes and I registered for the first time. The Adult School classes were very affordable so I picked two. I always wanted to learn to play the piano but instrumental classes can be very expensive. As someone who loves fashion and thrifting, the idea of making my own clothes sounded fun and like a good skill to have. Sewing was fantastic and I enjoyed learning the very practical skill of using a sewing machine. The Sewing instructors were so helpful that I will be back in the fall to finish my pants!”
